

What is that strange noise, that badly adjusted badge, the disheveled hair and rain-soaked creature? It's us, «What's Going On?», We'll accompany you all the week, illuminating social networks with your exploits.

Pictures, videos, editing, sketches, interviews, portraits, you'll know everything, see everything and hear everything. But watch out, the slightest gesture, the slightest word, any little whisper will be remembered!

Throughout the week, you will have the opportunity to discover everything through our numerous projects, including publishing, drawing, posters, videos and Facebook, Twitter or even Instagram posts!

The Workshop is open, We are on the lookout, have good week and may Lady Luck smile on you!

A word from the director:

«Originally, the Workshop was a Lisaa Nantes project, from a long time ago, because we are at the sixth edition! Two years ago, the managing director of Lisaa proposed to extend the principle to all Lisaa schools. That was set up last year. Seeing as it worked so well, we are doing the same this year.»

The subject : Sound(s) - Light(s):

This was an idea from Brigitte Lioret, she proposed this theme which was selected on a national scale.

In Lisaa Nantes, we have ten groups: CHHHHHHT, Orange!!, Shiny Shiny Party, Playlist, Paysages en mouvement (Agora), Scénographie-mémoire (Métis), Silence dans l'architecture, Breizh Attack, Mulliez Flory and of course, What's Going On?

A little section just for you, gossip, weird pictures, statistics, reports and punchlines. The Workshop has been declared open and nobody is safe!

Just a few happy participants were lucky enough to find the rare snacks and beverages hidden everywhere in the school. It's your turn! Go on a quest for the elixir that (maybe) could help you to survive up to the end.
